

Office of the Director of Central Intelligence

Washington, D.C. 20505

19 November 1981

NOTE FOR: Chairman, National Intelligence Council

Harry,

I believe this was published before you arrived.
You may find it of some interest.

Robert M. Gates

Attachment

ligence Agency suggested for the first time that a Castro victory might not be in the interests of the United States."

— Dwight Eisenhower, Memoirs

"The Agency usually erred on the side of the interpretation fashionable in the Washington Establishment... The analytical side of the CIA ... generally reflected the most liberal school of thought in the government... When warnings

SECRET

17